Applications Open For Postal Jobs

Applications are now being accepted for an open competitive examination for the positions of substitute clerk and substitute carrier for the Bay St. Louis Postoffice, according to Postmaster Andy J. Becker.

The examinations are to establish a registry for these civil service posts so that any vacancies can be filled quickly. The beginning pay base is $2 an hour. Applicants must be 18 years old but veterans are exempted.

Forms and further information can be secured from Becker, the executive secretary, board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Postoffice, Jackson, or the 5th regional Civil Service office, 275 Peachtree St., N. E., Atlanta, 23, Ga. Applications must be filed at the Jackson address.

Blue Crutch and balloon sales will be sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary juniors with

Stricter Dog Laws Eyed in Waveland

Plans to strengthen Waveland's dog ordinance were postponed at Tuesday night's town council meeting when Board Attorney Dan M. Russell Jr. reported that state law only required dogs at large to show identification of vaccination for rabies.

The present ordinance adopted last May prohibits the running at large in town unless the dog has been inoculated in accordance with paragraph 6815 of the state code.

Russell advised the aldermen that he would have to investigate their proposed amendment requiring all dogs at large to be leashed, but added that a Jackson ordinance requiring all dogs at large to be muzzled had been accepted by the State Supreme Court.

A decision is expected at the next meeting. Council Secretary C. O. Dufour was advised to send an investigation of the destroyed traffic light at the intersection of Coleman Avenue and Beach Boulevard.

Dufour reported that the light had been hit and destroyed Nov. 10 by a transport truck belonging to the Coast Wholesale Supply Co. of Long Beach. He added that he had written the company Nov. 14 after Sheriff Sylvan Ladner, who witnessed the accident, reported it.

In other matters the council voted $180 for a joint full page advertisement with the city of Bay St. Louis and the county board of supervisors for the Jan. 17 special edition of the Jackson newspapers. The supervisors contributed $370 and the city of Bay St. Louis, $350, according to a representative of the publication.

Better Mail Service Due In Bay Area

The Bay St. Louis Postoffice has made two changes designed to give better service, according to Postmaster Andrew Becker. The Cedar Point section of Bay St. Louis has been taken from Rural Route 1 and an auxiliary Road Route 1 now serves this section. This will speed delivery to those on Rural Route 1.

The other change is in times of collection from street mail boxes in Bay St. Louis. Collection times are now so arranged that any letter placed in a street collection box prior to 5 p.m. will go out the same day, Becker said.

Becker said he expects fluorescent lighting to be installed in the mail working area at the Postoffice in time for the improved lighting to help during the Christmas rush. Landscaping of the grounds early next year is scheduled, he added.

Crackdown Due On Old Tags

Sales of 3,442 1960 automobile tags totaled $106,158.21 for the month of October, according to Hancock County Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner.

Total sales for October were $106,905.83, which included 112 1959 tags for $747.62.

Sheriff Ladner said a crackdown on all out of date tag users will begin immediately.

All real and personal property taxes and poll taxes are now being collected by the sheriff's office, according to Ladner.

Smother Tigers 63-40

North Central passed another milestone on its march to basketball glory last night, smothering Bay High 63-40 in a tournament on the Savannah court.

Tonight, Poplarville and Savannah vie for their turn at the Hawks in a semi-final go. The championship game will be Saturday.

Playing their second game of the season, Bay High Tigers had trouble coping with the seasoned Hawks from North Central and were trailing 37-9 at the half when Coach James Johnson gave the Necaize boys a rest and called upon his reserves. The Hawks are expected to go far in state competition this year and are powerful in reserves as well as in their first team.

North Central has a 8-0 record this season. They have defeated Savannah, Perkinston, Brooklyn, St. Martin, Ocean Springs, Bay High and McNeil twice.

The Hawkettes will tackle a hard playing Carriere girls team tonight in their first tourney game. Wednesday night the Carriere lasses defeated D'iberville of North Biloxi.

Douglas, Wayne and Barney Necaize each scored 13 points last night for the Hawks. Berlin Necaize made 8, McCoy Peterson 4, Eulice Ladner 4, Darryl Ladner 3, Donald R. Necaize 3 and Donald Necaize 2. Most of the boys played only two quarters while Donald Necaize was out most of the game because of a cold.

Theatre Sets Annual Meet

New officers will be elected by the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre at its annual membership meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday at its quarters on Boardman Avenue, according to Phillip Allison, president.

Voting also will take place on the best play of the year and that award will be presented. Allison urged all persons interested in the theater to join and attend the session.

Santa To Arrive; Debate Yule Lights

Santa Letters In the Offing

That magic postmark of Santa Claus on letters signed by the delightful old gent will be making their appearance shortly in Hancock County.

The Hancock Bank has announced it is offering as a special service to its customers and the community a selection of enchanting Christmas letters written and signed by Santa. The envelopes may be addressed to any child and mailed in the special mail box in the bank lobby at Bay St. Louis and its other locations.

These letters will be transported to the tiny hamlet of Santa Claus, Ind., where they will be postmarked and returned directly to the child with the envelope bearing the renowned Santa Claus postmark.

A village of less than 50 year-round residents, Santa Claus becomes the hub of frenzied activity each Yule when it is literally snowed under with Santa's mail. Some five million pieces of mail will pass through its postoffice and receive the official postmark this season.

House Entered At Pearlington

A quantity of firearms and small household furnishings were taken from the residence of Mrs. Irma Cuevas at Pearlington sometime between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Cuevas said when she returned home she found the house had been entered. A check revealed items taken were a .20 gauge shotgun, .22 rifle, .22 target pistol, ladies coat, portable radio, 17-inch television set, pressure cooker, ladies wrist watch, and some silver.

Investigating are Beat 1 Constable H. G. Dean and Hancock County Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner.

Two Hurt, Cars Destroyed In Spanish Trail Mishap

A head-on crash Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. on the Old Spanish Trail, approximately 100 feet east of Citizen St., resulted in injury to both drivers and total loss of the vehicles.

A 1951 Ford driven by Joseph Jarrell, Rt. 2, Bay St. Louis, going west, apparently went out of control while rounding a curve and smashed into a 1948 Willis station wagon driven by Alter Hargett of Waveland who was traveling in the opposite direction, according to city police officer Jack Ladner who investigated.

Both drivers were taken to the Hancock County Hospital. Hargett was given emergency treatment and released. Jarrell was reported by hospital authorities to be in good condition at noon today. Jarrell is charged with

Plans for the traditional Christmas lighting along the business area of Beach Boulevard and the east end of Main Street are scheduled for discussion tomorrow by a group of merchants from the area, as the city prepares for the arrival of Santa Claus on Saturday.

St. Nick, in full dress uniform, will make his appearance at 2 p.m. Saturday at the toll bridge to hear a personal Christmas request from each boy and girl.

A festive parade including the Lazy Y Rebel Riders led by Betty Younger will circle the business district and Santa will set up shop at Kern's where he plans to visit with each youngster.

This marks the 12th year that Kern's has sponsored Santa's trip from the North Pole.

Meanwhile, the question of holiday lighting for the Beach business district hinges on the St. Clare's Yule Tree Plans Told

The fourth annual Christmas tree at the parish hall of St. Clare's Church, Waveland, will be held the week before Christmas under auspices of the Holy Name Society, according to Sterling Balaski, president.

A skate-o-rama at the Waveland Roller Rink will be held for the benefit of the doll and toy fund which finances the project. Henry Develle, fund chairman, said all children of the parish, regardless of denomination, will be welcome at the Christmas party when toys will be distributed and refreshments served. Santa Claus will be on hand.

The skate-o-rama will be held from 9 to 11 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 10, for adults and from 4 to 6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 11, for children. Admission for adults will be $1 and 75 cents for children.

reckless driving and speeding. Trial was set for today before Mayor John A. Scaffie but was postponed because of the defendant's injuries. Both vehicles were removed to the Sam Pernicaro garage on Old Spanish Trail.

Extensive property damage occurred in a two-car collision on U. S. 90 at 2:30 p.m. Monday about 15 miles west of Bay St. Louis.

A 1960 Ford driven by John Dickson of Naylor, Mo., received damages totaling approximately $600 when it struck the rear of a 1959 Ford Ranchwagon operated by Floyd Thompson of Mobile, Ala., who had slowed down for a highway maintenance crew working on the roadway, according to Patrolman Fred Curet.

Curet said damage to the Thompson auto was estimated at $125.

outcome of a meeting at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the board room of the Hancock Bank to which all interested persons are invited.

The opening of a new business in Gulfport has prevented Henry Osolnach, chairman of the merchants' lighting group last year, from continuing those duties this year.

Because of the lateness in getting started this year, none of those contacted would say definitely that this business area of the city would be brightened by the traditional lights.

Yule lights for the business area on Railroad Avenue across from the L and N station have already been strung by the co-operating merchants of that area. Lights are also up in the area of A and J Food Store on Main Street, and it is expected that Christmas lights will be strung on Ulman Avenue between Second Street and Beach Boulevard.

While the City of Bay St. Louis does not sponsor these Christmas displays, in the past it has footed the electricity bill for the various merchant groups.

Young Readies 2nd Drilling At Jordanacres

Preparations for drilling of a second well on Mississippi's newest oil field are being made by Marshall R. Young, discoverer of the only two fields in Hancock County. An informed source said this week that ground is being cleared a short distance from the new well, Marshall R. Young's No. 1 Jordanacres, SE SW of Sec. 35-75-15W.

The county's sixth producing well is reported to be flowing from the Cuevas zone of the Washita-Fredricksburg which is producing in Ansley field, 10 miles southeast.

Production was recorded as high as 120 barrels of 35 gravity oil per day from one foot of sand perforated at 10,286 1/2-8 1/2 feet. It is from the top foot of a 10-foot oil sand section and is considered a good producer.

Flow was on 7/64-inch choke with tubing pressure of 1,100 pounds but was reduced to 6/64-inch in an effort to eliminate the salt water below the oil sand. After reducing the choke, production dropped to 66 barrels of oil per day with four to six percent mud with tubing pressure 55 to 975 pounds. The drop in tubing pressure is said to be caused by mud holding back the oil.

Meeting Postponed

The Bay St. Louis Housing Authority will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the housing authority office. Scheduled for Dec. 1, the meeting was postponed because of illness of George Heitzmann, executive director.

Workers Wanted

A few steadfast women have been active in Hancock County Hospital's Auxiliary. Even for the present hospital they are too few.

Soon our new, larger and most modern hospital will open. It will accommodate three times the number of patients. Manifestly a hospital auxiliary, whose active members are pushed to help out in the present hospital, needs many more ACTIVE members if they are to adequately render their assistance to the new hospital and its patients.

We frequently hear ladies complain that they have nothing to do, but it seems to us that the ones who do most to help out with civic and charity projects are those who don't have time to complain. Hancock County Hospital's Auxiliary needs and will welcome both if they will be ACTIVE.

We're getting the hospital. Help the auxiliary be prepared to do its part.

Sneak Practice

One road toward dictatorship can mightily quietly sneak up on an unsuspecting public. Two recent rulings by different federal agencies are illustrative. Both rulings outwardly aim at keeping businesses out of politics, a laudable end, but both have the result of putting privately owned business at a disadvantage financially with opponents.

For years corporations and individuals have not been permitted to deduct as business expenses in computing their federal income tax any sum contributed to a political party or to a candidate for elective office. More recently corporations were prohibited from making such contributions. The reason was to keep big money from abusing its power to the political disadvantage of those controlling smaller purses.

Carrying forward what outwardly seems the logic of the case, the Internal Revenue Service, through its regulations, now holds that, while advertising expenses are usually deductible in determining profit, advertising aimed at forwarding or opposing particularly legislation directly effects the business involved, is not a tax deductible business expense.

Last week the Federal Power Commission ruled that advertising by electric power companies, including Mississippi Power Company, opposing certain aspects and proposals by the Rural Electric Administration in Washington, a federally subsidized competitor, were political and as such were not an expense in determining power rates even though the political proposals of REA would have an adverse effect on Mississippi Power Company.

Now here's what happens to any utility, and utilities depend on rate regulation by state and federal agencies to make a profit. The utility opposes a union advocated labor proposal. The union advertises its side and so does the company. As a so-called non-profit organization the union pays no income tax, although its members can, and do, deduct their dues as a business expense. Since no income tax is involved for the unions, no question of tax deductibility arises. The utility, a taxpayer, cannot deduct these expenses before determining its tax, and also cannot deduct these expenses in determining what its profits were in a rate case before the Federal Power Commission. Thus they lose two ways.

REA is in an even stronger position versus the power companies than are the unions in this regard. REA pays no income taxes (in Mississippi REA affiliates are exempt from much property tax) and have the money of the federal government, in part derived from private power companies, to pay for their campaign for a political proposal.

Bureaucrats long in office, whether Democrats or Republicans, Socialists or Labor Party, share one thing in common. Anyone or any firm disagreeing with their drive for greater power must be made to operate at a disadvantage.

The acme of a bureaucrat is a dictator. In second place is full fledged socialism.

Now we are about to begin the year's most exciting sport, the race to see whether the number of shopping days until Christmas runs out before our money does.

The rematch of Ole Miss and LSU in the Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day may be the football highlight for some, but this Sunday's contest between the Flies and Pleas of St. Stanislaus should be of more interest to residents of the Bay area. Why not go watch!

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo: The local welfare department wants both white and Negro foster parents to care for the many boys and girls whose own parents can no longer provide them with the parental love and affection necessary to the growth of their young minds and bodies.

What is a foster home? A foster home is the home of an unrelated person or family group which gives temporary care to children needing placement away from their own home. The children are not available for adoption.

Who are foster parents? Foster parents are couples like you and your neighbor who have a good home and a lot of love and affection to give to a child who needs it badly. Foster parents serve as substitute parents to children not their own until such time as the child's parents are able to provide for them again, or other permanent plans are made.

Child welfare work is based on the premise that a child's own home with his own parents is the basis of normal growth for children since they need the close ties of family life. Sometimes circumstances prevent a child's being able to remain with his own family, however. Trouble comes suddenly to many families in the form of illness, death, desertion, separation or divorce. Sometimes children are neglected and abused by their natural parents. For those children whose homes have broken down and who have no relatives or friends with whom they may live some plan must be made. At such a time foster care provides the nearest substitute to a child's own home because there he can get the love and attention that all children need.

Your welfare department handles many such cases and needs foster homes to meet the needs of these children. Could you be a foster parent? And if so, how?

Here is the answer: A telephone call, a letter or a visit to the Hancock County Welfare Department is the first step. Call the Welfare Department and a worker will go over the details with you. The telephone number is HO7-4565.

MRS. GLADYS HAAS, REGENT HANCOCK COUNTY WELFARE DEPARTMENT.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo: I was very much surprised at the statement printed in the Nov. 12 issue, Sea Coast Echo, by Mr. Walter J. Phillip, attorney for the Clermont Harbor Waterworks utility that we had failed to appeal within the required time.

I have before me a letter addressed to Mr. Philip S. Finn Jr. and signed by Mr. O. B. Marshall, Sec. of the Public Service Council, stating that our appeal was received in time and was duly filed for consideration. It also states that the commission shall either grant or refuse an application for a rehearing within (20) twenty days, after date of application therefor; and a failure by the commission to act upon such application within that period shall be deemed refusal thereof.

The commission did not take any action in regard to the motion for re-hearing in this cause.

The commission handling of this appeal came as quite a shock, as this appeal was accompanied by the signatures of over seventy (70) per cent of the water users of Clermont Harbor, Miss.

When the waterworks was bought in 1925 from the Huntington Estate the water pipes were in the middle of the streets. Since then the owners have moved the pipes across the front of property owners' land which they have no right to do without first getting permission from property owners. I have checked the Court house records, and cannot find where the C. H. W. wks. have recorded any easements from the people who own the property. Mr. W. E. "Bucky" Moore Commissioner of the Southern District advised me, when I called on him Monday Nov. 16, 1959, that while the commission had given the C. H. W. wks. a franchise to operate the waterworks they positively did not include the right to cross the front of land owners property, without first getting an easement.

I was also surprised at the statement made to me by Mr. Moore that the commission was not required to investigate the assets, etc., of any concern or individual that operated exclusively within any county. They by the applicant at its face value and render their decision accordingly, with no consideration shown for the poor customers who come under such high handed methods.

From the wording of the little yellow slip I received with my statement, it seems that the Clermont Harbor Waterworks Utility expects customers to live up to the ruling of the commission and that they can do as they please. I would advise them to get a copy of the regulations and they will find it quite different from operating a private concern. Our committee has dedicated itself to see that they adhere strictly to rules and regulations of the Miss. Public Service Commission, including an office in Clermont Harbor, Miss., where the records can be checked at any time.

I have written Mr. O. B. Marshall to advise us by what authority he gave the Clermont Harbor Waterworks Utility the right to collect and use their customers money twelve (12) months in advance and not pay any interest for the use of this money. No utility that I know of is afforded such gracious privileges.

The Bay St. Louis Waterworks collects its water rates in advance but it is not a utility working under the rules and regulations of the Miss. Public Service Commission.

Miss Linda Ann Kimmel, Michigan Airman are Wed

Miss Linda Ann Kimmel became the bride of Airman third class Edward Dennis McCrystal Jr. of Keesler Air Force Base in a double ring ceremony at 9 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums decked the altar for the nuptial mass at which the Rev. Msgr. Martin Moloney was celebrant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Earl Kimmel Jr. of Bay St. Louis and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. McCrystal Sr. of Royal Oak, Mich.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a street length dress of nylon and acetate lace fashioned with a shirred bodice with a square neckline and long sleeves. Scallops of lace edged the neck and hem lines and the full skirt was made with a pinafore effect. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace headpiece and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Gail Colson was the bride's only attendant. She wore a winter blue nylon dress with a bouffant skirt and full sleeves, carrying a bouquet of white carnations.

James Rhodes of Keesler AFB was the groom's best man.

A reception followed at the Kimmel home on Leonhard Avenue where arrangements of white pompons were used throughout the rooms. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and covered with a white Irish lace cloth. Crystal candelabras with white tapers flanked the cake.

Mrs. Kimmel chose for the occasion a black taffeta and velvet gown with matching accessories. Mrs. McCrystal was in beige with brown accessories. Their flowers were carnations.

The couple is at home on Carroll Avenue and will go to Detroit, Mich., about Dec. 16 when he has a furlough.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High School and is employed at Hancock Insurance Agency. Airman McCrystal was educated in Michigan schools and has been in the service for the last year.

From the amount of ducks winding up on local tables it appears they don't know the season is on and oldtimers are predicting this to be one of the best seasons in recent years.

Serious Train Mishap Averted

A serious train wreck was narrowly averted at 6:15 p.m. Thursday when the westbound Crescent Limited No. 37 hit a 130 pound railway tie that had been placed on the tracks, just east of the Bay depot.

Investigating city policeman Latham Garriga said the slow speed of the train coming into the station kept it from being derailed. Garriga said the tie was approximately four feet long.

Garriga reported that a Louisville and Nashville Co. detective who investigated the near accident was unable to find any leads or motives.

Shrine Circus Is Thrill for Waveland Kids

Forty-four jubilant youngsters chaperoned by Miss Mary Perkins, principal, and three other adults left Waveland School Thanksgiving morning on the large school bus driven by Raymond Talbot for their fourth consecutive year at the Shrine Circus in New Orleans thanks to the generosity of the Al Menah Temple which donates the tickets. The bus stopped for refreshments both going to and returning from the city. As they entered the Auditorium each child and adult was presented with a bag of potato chips and a cup of ice cream donated by the Shrine. Clyde Beatty's famous wild animal act was the chief attraction and the one that seemed to fascinate the little ones. As the bus wended its tired, but happy way home it was said that it seemed to be bringing part of the Circus along as the souvenir laden travellers popped balloons, swapped Shrine caps and ran their monkey's up and down the little sticks.

County Soil Conservation Roll Adds 17 Cooperators

Seventeen new cooperators have been added to the soil conservation program in Hancock County since July 1, according to Hugh Sanford, work unit conservationist.

This means that there have been 17 farms requesting assistance from the county's district office comprising 2,311 acres of additional land needing and receiving treatment for improvement, he explained.

On the list are C. W. Ruckstuhl, Robert W. Jones, Russell R. Necaise, Curtis Wheat, Betty Younger, John Sanford, Alton L. Collins, Fred Ladner, Mrs. Edna Ladner, Leon Davis, D. C. Smith, Arthur Koenig, Mrs. Naydine Schindler, Dr. D. P. Bradley, ing firm. A $15.53 installation fee for both gas and water pipes was approved by the aldermen. This fee will be charged even if the customer furnished the pipes. Mayor Garfield Ladner was authorized to hire a janitor for Town Hall.

Building permits approved were as follows: A. C. Walsh, house, Holiday Hill subdivision, $2,000; Ralph Mockey, house, Five Oaks Place subdivision, $1,000; W. F. McCabe, house, Holiday Hill subdivision, $2,000; James Rees, garage, Waveland Terrace subdivision, $400; and R. W. Betz, addition, Hoffman Lane, $2,000.

Council recessed until Dec. 23 when extra Christmas labor and regular city employees will be paid.

J. L. Davis, Erwin Hoda and F. M. Cook.

The first thing a farmer or rancher needs in carrying out a sound conservation program on his farm is a plan. Through the service of the district, a soil map is made and furnished for the soil conservation technician and the landowner to be used as a practical guide in making the farm plan. This is a joint plan whereby the technician advises with the farmer on the best and most practical treatment for erosion control measures and/or drainage.

Each acre is planned according to its needs and in line with the owner's desire with consideration to the type of farming now in progress and future intentions.

Further information may be secured from the local SCS office.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT In The Public Interest

Reprinted below is a recent Associated Press news story appearing on Tuesday, November 24, 1959

FRAUD SEEN IN SAVINGS

New York (AP)—More than 100 million dollars in savings deposits are jeopardized by "a nation-wide fraud," New York Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz said today.

He said an almost insolvent insurance company operating out of a back room in Tangier, Morocco, is the insurer of savings accounts in eight savings and loan associations.

Lefkowitz obtained a State Supreme Court order to examine 46 witnesses in his investigation of the international operation.

He said at a news conference that the savings and loan associations solicited deposits through mail and newspaper advertising offering a 5 per cent return.

He identified the Tangier firm as the International Guaranty & Insurance Co.

The court order, signed by Justice Jacob Markowitz, named three institutions in Chicago, two in Idaho and one each in Utah, Washington and Maryland.

Lefkowitz contended that the insurance company does not have sufficient assets to insure the depositors' accounts. He said the savings and loan associations "knew or should have known that false and fraudulent statements were contained in their own promotional literature and in the promotional literature of International Guaranty." (Jackson Daily News, November 24, 1959)

An "insuring agency" domiciled in Africa, described in the adjoining column, has been retained by some savings and loan associations in order that those associations may advertise "accounts insured to $10,000."

Such associations cannot qualify for insurance of accounts by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and have resorted to deceptive plans and devices to fool their customers. As a general rule, such associations also promise to pay a dividend rate higher than it is possible to maintain under the sound business practices required of FSLIC-insured associations.

When a savings and loan association advertises "accounts insured to $10,000," it does not always mean that those savings accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

The Mississippi Savings and Loan League feels it is in order at this time to bring these facts to the attention of the public generally, in view of the possibility of "fraud" which is described as "nationwide" by the attorney general of the state of New York.

FSLIC-insured savings and loan associations in Bay St. Louis, Gulfport, Biloxi and Pascagoula are People's Federal Savings and Loan Association, Bay St. Louis, Coast Federal Savings and Loan Association, Gulfport, First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Biloxi and First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Pascagoula.

BUY LOCALLY, WHERE YOUR DOLLARS CAN COME BACK --

Dantagnan Realty Co., 149 Main St.

Most of us lead a double life.

One minute we're a BUYER. The next minute we're a SELLER . . . of goods, services, time, or talents.

Of course, there's some incompatibility in a Buyer-Seller combination. About like you'd expect in a dog-and-cat mixture.

Consequently, we sometimes get to playing our part as Mr. Buyer with such enthusiasm we forget that our other self, Mr. Seller, has to put dollars in our pocket before our Mr. Buyer self can spend them out of it.

And every time we, as Mr. Buyer, take one of those dollars out of circulation here by spending it out of town, we shrink Mr. Seller's market so it's a little harder for him to get us some more dollars.

It's too bad we don't get more teamwork out of our two personalities. When Mr. Buyer is cutting Mr. Seller's throat, we need to recall that they are both using the same throat.

Tigers Top Pass Cage Squad, Stephens Stars

With only four days practice Coach Wilmer Seymour's Bay High squad licked Pass Christian 45-37 Tuesday night in the Tigers' cage in their season opener.

Because of the playoff for the football conference championship Bay High cancelled its first two games of the season, some of the first string basketballers also starting on the gridiron.

The Tigers were a little shaky at times, being on the short end of the scoring in the third and fourth quarters, but considering that the boys were not issued uniforms until the day before the game, Coach Seymour thinks they performed well and hopes to match the enviable record turned in by Coach Lance Lumpkin's Gulf Coast Conference champion football squad.

Right guard Barry Stephens took top scoring honors with 18, hitting the basket with 7 field goals and 4 free throws in spite of fouling out in the final quarter. Captain Bill Watts tallied 12, reporter and left guard Paul Miller 6, Gregory Necaise 3, Tommy Godwin 3 and Ronnie Peterson 3.

For Pass Christian Captain Donnie Ladner made 10, Larry Bergen 8, Robert Bishop 7 and Butch Tillman 5.

Score by quarters:

Bay High 13 15 7 10 - 45
P. Christian 3 11 11 12 - 37

The Tigerettes found the going rough in the opening game and had trouble handling a Pirate lass named K. Bergen who scored more than half of Pass Christian's total score. The Pirates won 45-32.

Virginia Breland was high scorer for Bay High with 18.

Hawks Keep Win Record Intact Yet

The powerful North Central Hawks remain undefeated in the local cage circuit, swamping Ocean Springs 83-51 last Wednesday on the Hawks' court before another overflow crowd.

With a state championship as their goal, the Necaise boys romped the hardwood at will, making every quarter a winner. Douglas Necaise was top scorer again with 20 followed by Donald Necaise who hit the basket for 12. Douglas has been high scorer in every game this year except against Brooklyn when Donald took top honors with 27 to Douglas' 21.

Wayne Necaise scored 10, John 8, Bullice Ladner 7, Darrel Ladner 6, McCoy Peterson 6, Barney Necaise 5, Berlin Necaise 4, O. J. Peterson 3 and Donald Ladner 2.

For Ocean Springs, Glass rang up 16, Moler 13, Jones 11, Levi 6 and Glazer 5.

Score by quarters:
N. Central 23 18 28 14 - 83
Ocean Springs 11 10 20 11 - 51

The Hawkettes opened the double header defeating the Ocean Springs girls 57-41 and are unbeaten on their home court. Janell Ladner thrilled the spectators with her brilliant play at pivot forward. With the help of Bertie Faye Cameron and Bonnie Peterson, she repeatedly stole the ball and scooted down court to hit the basket. Also starring were guards Gaynell Ory, Dorothy Stockstill and Jewell Ladner, a trio that has to be watched carefully or they will steal the ball every time.

High scorer was Janell Ladner 23, Bonnie Peterson 20, Bertie Faye Cameron 12 and Margie Hode 2.

For Ocean Springs, Elizabeth Ward made 22, Kathleen Seymour 11 and Donnie Johnson 8.

Score by quarters:
N. Central 16 21 11 9 - 57

Don Byrd Aids In Rescue Try

Pfc. Donald Byrd, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Byrd of Julia Street, was cited for heroic efforts in a rescue attempt of two drowning servicemen in Rochefort, Germany.

Byrd is a military policeman and was on duty when two Rochefort soldiers crashed through a guard chain in their auto and plunged 15 feet into a boat basin at Rochefort sub-post.

Rushing to the scene with another MP, Byrd jumped into the water and was able to make brief contact with one of the soldiers, but was unable to pull him to safety because of clothing and equipment.

Byrd is a 1957 graduate of Bay High School and has been in the service approximately a year and a half. He formerly was on the Sea Coast Echo staff.

SJA Cagers Romp Over Harrison

Although somewhat handicapped by the loss of their captain, Frankie Matherne, St.
Joseph's Academy basketball squad romped to a smashing 49-28 victory over highly rated Harrison Central Tuesday night on Central's court.

Monday night the St. Joseph girls played host to Pass Christian and suffered their first defeat of the season, 49-28. It was a hard played game, both teams playing their hearts out. Play was halted for a few minutes when Frankie fell to the floor shattering her glasses. She was taken to a hospital where it was reported that 12 tiny pieces of glass were removed from her eye. She is recuperating at home and a late medical report stated that the eye is healing and she will be able to return to the lineup shortly.

High scorer for SJA Tuesday with Harrison Central was Mary Jo Krieger with 25 points. Judy
Favre made 11, Elizabeth
Krieger 8, Cathy Rhodes 3 and Dianne Grisson 2.

Score by quarters:
SJA 17 5 12 15 - 49
Harrison 11 3 3 11 - 28

St. Joseph's varsity squad has chalked up five wins to one loss
this season. They defeated
D'Arville 67-25; McNeil 36-30;
St. J. A. of Pass Christian 63-27;
Bay High 63-50 and Harrison
Central. Their only loss was to Pass Christian.

A poll taken among the players by the academy sports editor,
Regina Bolanos, shows the Mc-Neil game to have been the most interesting to the competitors.
The score was tied five times and was not won until the final minutes of play.

Ladner on Squad

J. T. Ladner of Sellers is among the freshmen at Pearl River Junior College on whom Jack Gallagher, head basketball coach, is counting on for good performance during the coming 20-game cage season.
